When you arrive at "Los Teñideros", where two rivers come together, you will be amazed at the celestial turquoise blue watercolor that comes from the waterfall. This color is created when the minerals in the water (aluminum, silicon, and oxygen) are suspended in the water and refracts light from the sun so that the flow looks blue. Get your camera ready because this is the perfect place to take photos of this unforgettable Costa Rica blue waterfall!

At the end of this hike, you will enjoy a delicious lunch.
